Germans Reneg: Resume Fight For Paris

Rumania In Allied Camp: Joins Fight

Nazis in Full Flight Toward Border in Other Sectors

BULLETIN

New York, Aug. 24—(AP)—The British radio quoted the diplomatic correspondent of the London Times today as saying the Bulgarian government officially has asked the British ambassador in Turkey "for conditions determined by the allies which would permit Bulgaria to cease participating in the war".

London, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Rumania began marching against Hungary today after her sudden exit from the war against the allies in an about-face which direly threatened the whole German position in the Balkans.

At 7:55 a. m. a Bucharest dispatch relayed by the Swiss radio said Rumanian troops "started a march into Transylvania last night." Transylvania is the mountainous province, half of which Hitler took from Rumania and handed to Hungary in the Vienna dictate of 1940.

Bucharest broadcasts said Rumania in fact had turned co-belligerent and there were reports of spreading fighting in the rich oil and wheat kingdom between Rumanian and German troops.

Bulgaria, already outflanked in the south by Turkey's severance of relations with Germany, now was periled from the north as well and in an entirely untenable position.

Yugoslavia and Greece, where Patriot armies have waged long and bitter Guerrilla war against the nazi yoke, were in positions for quick liberation.

Russian armies driving swiftly toward the heart of Rumania signaled the punch which finally blew down the house of cards which deposed Premier-Marshal Antonescu had built in Rumania.

The Germans announced that Rumania's capitulation had been expected. The Berlin correspondent of Aftonbladet of Stockholm cabled that "German counter measures can be expected." This Swedish report said Berlin circles blamed Rumania's move on the Russian offensive. Turkey's break with Germany, Bulgaria's peace overtures and the sustained allied bombings of the Ploesti oil installations.

In midafternoon, Berlin broadcast an official DNB dispatch giving the Germans their first news on the Rumanian armistice insisting that King Mihai's new government actually was a "communist regime." The broadcast said rioting had broken out in Rumania.

The Germans were plainly in panic as the Balkan crackup seemed to be repeating the history of 1918 when the collapse of Bulgaria shocked the kaiser's generals into a quick plea for peace.

Berlin announced the formation of a "Rumanian National Government" but it was not lcear whether his regime or King Mihai's government controlled Bucharest. Nor was it immediately clear who controlled the Bucharest radio, which announced a curfew from 8 p. m. to 5 a. m. and ordered all civil officials to report for duty. Street cars and train traffic were announced as cut off during those hours as well.

Even before Rumania's an-

Dixon Marine Hurt in Auto Accident

Stanley Schrock, member of the Marine Corps, who is home on leave of absence, sustained severe head injuries in an automobile accident this morning about 2:20. He was driving a car belonging to his father, F. W. Schrock, 1220 Peoria avenue, and had just entered the city limits on the Lincoln Highway from the east. His car skidded and rolled over several times, the driver sustaining cuts about the face and head and numerous body bruises.

He was rendered unconscious from the injuries but revived and members of the police department who were summoned to the scene of the accident, removed him to the Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital. After his injuries had been dressed he was removed to his home. The car which was badly damaged was hauled to a local garage.

Nip Chief Worries as Yankees Again Bomb Bonin Group

By J. B. KRUEGER
Associated Press War Editor

New American stabs into the Bonins 600 miles below Tokyo gave point today to Japanese Premier Koiso's warning to his people that "the enemy is watching for an opportunity to land on our homeland."

Japan, he said faces an "unprecedently grave national crisis."

Radio Tokyo said Liberators bombed Chichi Jima Thursday (Tokyo time). Two days before, Adm. Chester Nimitz announced, Liberators sunk two cargo vessels and set a third afire off Chichi Jima, principal fortress in the Bonin island defenses guarding Japan.

Mindful that the Bonins have been under steady attack since American investment of Saipan to the south, General Koiso warned of possible homeland invasion and asked the people to increase Japan's fighting power.

Asks Improved Defenses

He asked too for improved air raid defenses, no doubt in recollection of recent Superfortress attacks on the home islands. American bombers, Tokyo radio quoted him as saying, last night, were certain to increase their blows.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur contributed to this gloomy enemy appraisal with successful attacks on six ships south of the Philippines. Mindanao was hit for the tenth

Legislation

Chicago, Aug. 24—(AP)—The village board of suburban Kenilworth can't stop roosters from crowing or hens from cackling but it has acted to stop their making noises near residences.

To quiet the complaints of residents whose sleep is disturbed by the village's poultry, the board ruled roosters must step back 300 feet from the nearest house before they can crow. But hens can cackle within 200 feet of residences.

The board said it was advised a rooster's good morning call fades at 300 feet.

Result of Election May Not be Certain for Days Afterward

Delayed Tabulation of Soldiers Votes May Hold Up Outcome

By EDWARD CRAGH
(Copyright 1944 by The Associated Press.)

New York, Aug. 24—(AP)—Because 11 states will not count their soldier votes on Election Day, November 7, it is possible that the outcome of the 1944 presidential election will remain in doubt for several weeks after the polls close.

Should the election be unusually close, the winner might not be known until as late as December 7, when the canvass of Nebraska's absentee vote could determine whether the state's seven electoral votes would be cast for President Roosevelt or Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

These possibilities grow out of an Associated Press survey which indicate that more than 2,000,000 men and women in the armed forces have applied for absentee ballots and that, by the most conservative estimates of state election officials, approximately twice that number will vote in November.

May Be Decisive

The soldier vote is likely to be decisive in most of the 11 states which do not immediately tabulate it, and the 11—including Pennsylvania with 36, California with 22 and Missouri with 15—have a combined electoral vote of 116. President Wilson's electoral margin over Charles Evans Hughes in 1916 was only 23.

In Pennsylvania, where officials expect 200,000 to 300,000 soldier ballots, the absentee vote will be counted November 22.

California, whose secretary of state predicts a service vote of 175,000 to 200,000, will not canvass it until November 21. Missouri receiving more than 1,000 ballot applications daily, will start counting absentee votes the Friday after election day.

Of the states which will defer

Hundreds of Tons of Hemp Burned

Dense clouds of smoke emanating from piles of burning hemp at the government-owned hemp mill, covered the countryside south of Polo today. Hundreds of tons of hemp was estimated to have been burned and from reports, several additional tons are to be burned as waste material with no commercial use. The burning of the piles of hemp was the subject of a front page special article in today's Chicago Tribune written by Gail Compton, who visited the plant and vicinity.

No official statement was forthcoming from the plant today when Telegraph representatives visited the mill. Manager H. R. Dyas was absent from the plant and K. A. Preston, master mechanic stated that he was not prepared to give out a public statement, other than to say that the hemp which is being burned is waste material.

The huge piles of hemp which are being burned represent the last of the 1942 crop which was grown in the vicinity of Byron and

Nelson Takes Issue With Critics of His Civilian Reconversion Program

Washington, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Taking sharp issue with Army critics of his civilian reconversion program, WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson was disclosed today to have testified that with minor exceptions, all critical munitions programs "are being met."

Asserting that despite the need of men to meet expanded requirements of specialized military items, Nelson added that this problem would not be solved "by letting loose a blunderbuss against the whole manpower situation or by general edicts and broad limitations on the use of labor."

Nelson's side of his row with the Army was released by the senate war investigating committee today as the aftermath of earlier publication of testimony by Maj. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, Army materiel director, placing primary blame on manpower shortages for big deficits in heavy ammunition and other items.

"The decline in employment," Nelson told the committee last week, "must be recognized as a decline in labor requirements, even though there is an urgent demand for about 100,000 workers in direct war production and another 100,000 in sustaining civilian production.

"Our own estimate is that overall manpower requirements will go down by at least another 300,000 by the end of the year, even though both Germany and Japan continue at war with us and all our production schedules remain in effect."

Nelson said flatly that war production "does not need more than 100,000" of the 700,000 workers already released from munitions industries, that war plants could not employ the 700,000 and that the millions still needed at their war jobs "should be given the assurance that civilian jobs will be available when war production eases up."

Soviets Overrun Rumania, Smash Debica Factories

(By The Associated Press)

Moscow, Aug. 24—Captives reported hostilities spreading between the troops of Germany and Rumania today while two great ward the heart of the oil and Russian army groups swept toward wheat kingdom in drives apparently aimed at trapping any nazis still in their path.

Companion offensives in south and north Poland continued apace.

Troops which seized Debica were declared overrunning hundreds of German war factories, 150 of them in Debica alone. Red Star said the Lwow-Krakow railroad bristled with German war plants of all kinds. The advance moved within 17 miles of Tarnow. Further north, Russian columns were within 35 miles of Krakow and 75 of German Silesia itself.

Northeast of Warsaw, the Red army drove within five miles of the important communications hub of Lomza, 20 miles below the East Prussian frontier, in an offensive gradually splitting German armies defending that reich province and Warsaw.

Captured Rumanians said the Germans had trained their guns on them, seeking to block their retreat in some places. Many Rumanian units were reported raked by machinegun fire.

Reds Uninterrupted

The Russian advance continued uninterrupted toward the Danube basin and Galati gap. At midnight, soviet troops had galloped within 167 miles of Bucharest and 140 of the Ploesti oil center, and less than 50 from the mouth of the Danube—a principal transport artery for Hitler. Tighina, Cetatea-Alba and Vaslui all fell in Bessarabia.

Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky's second Ukrainian army group has captured 6,000 square miles of Rumanian territory in a push from Odessa and thundered on toward the Galati gap. His troops were within 35 miles of those of Gen. Fedor I. Tolbukh in driving down from Jasi, and the armies appeared to be throwing a great noose around enemy forces clustered about the Bessarabian capital of Chisinau.

North of the Carpathians, Marshal Ivan S. Konev's First Ukranian army group was overrunning swiftly the arsenals where thousands of Polish and Russian war prisoners were put to work in 1941 and 1942. The Red army here was actually getting into vital German industries, factories upon which Hitler depended to keep Germany in the war.

Business Men Search for GROP Employees

A renewed effort to obtain additional employes at the Green River ordnance plant has been voluntarily assumed by a group of Dixon business men, who today gave support to the program. Every patriotic organization and civic group in the city is to be solicited to lend their support to the plan to provide the badly needed additional employes at the plant. A petition was today being circulated among business and professional interests addressed to the officers of the G.R.O.P. which reads as follows:

"Understanding that you are in dire need of help to provide munitions for our fighting forces, we want to take this opportunity to tender our good offices in aiding in whatever manner within our power to provide the men and women needed in this critical time of our greatest war effort".

Contacts were being made with persons who may be employed and any interested were urged to go to the employment information desk in the lobby of the City National bank.

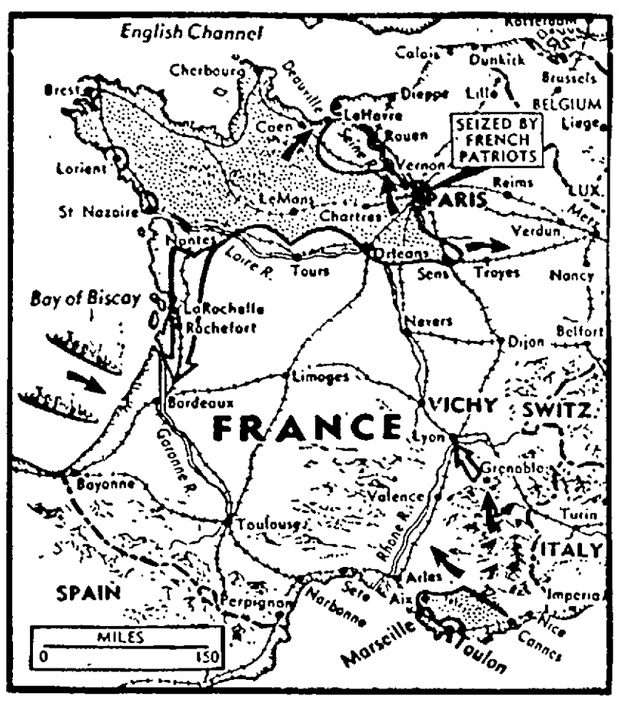
Allies Seize Paris, Press On



—NEA Telephoto

Following liberating of Paris by French and allied forces, the nazi rout is gaining momentum, from the Swiss-Italian border to the Bay of Biscay. Allied landings reported near Bordeaux; in south, Yanks capture Grenoble, with possible drive to Lyons, cutting all rail traffic from southwest France to Germany.

Rome, Aug. 24—(AP)—U. S. forces striking 25 miles northwest of Marseille toward the Rhone river route to interior France have captured Salon, headquarters announced today, and French Poilus who recaptured their greatest port "are driving westward into the lower Rhone valley".

(A direct Associated Press dispatch from Geneva declared American forces had reached the Swiss frontier, presumably in an advance from Grenoble, 75 miles below Geneva. Earlier the Swiss radio had placed U. S. troops at Annecy, 51 miles northeast of Grenoble, and within 15 miles of Lyon. The latter town, 240 miles southwest of Paris, was reported

2,300 Yank Planes in Giant Assaults

London, Aug. 24—(AP)—A vast armada of 2,300 American planes smashed a dozen targets in Germany and on the Czech border today while the RAF bombed and strafed a nazi "Dunkerque" attempt from the great port of Le Havre at the mouth of the Seine, only a few miles beyond advancing allied lines.

The attacks in Germany by 1,300 heavy bombers and 1,000 fighters constituted one of the greatest assaults ever mounted by United States air forces.

Targets included synthetic oil plants at Merseberg, Misburg and Ruhland in Germany and Brux on the Czecho-Slovak border. Also bombed were an oil refinery at Freital near Dresden; two airplane plants at Brunswick; German air force stations at Kolleda near Mersberg and Langenhagen near Hannover; a radio factory at Miemar and other industrial targets at Kiel.

As American armor slashed 25 miles down the Seine in new lightning advances, the harried Germans put out a big fleet of light service warships and other vessels from the threatened port on the Seine estuary.

For eight solid hours, RAF coastal command planes in relays bombarded the flotilla, sinking and damaging an undetermined number of ships. Many were set afire.

The air forces announced late today that 50 German warplanes were destroyed in operations from British and French bases yesterday and that in the first 70 days of the invasion, 3,611 German planes had been destroyed in the air and on the ground. In the same period 2,955 allied craft were lost. The figures included strategic bombing attacks on Germany itself.

Swift Mosquito bombers made a "concentrated" attack on Cologne last night.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Rumania's double back-flop—surrender to the allies and war against the Germans—will render the Balkan peninsula untenable for Hitler although he will hang on as long as he can as a further measure to delay his own capitulation.

The Rumanian turnabout represents another great military victory for the allies, although diplomacy has played its part. This biggest of the Balkan countries has flown the white flag because she has been beaten in battle and was about to be overrun by the Red forces which were bearing down on her from the north. The importance of her surrender is fourfold:

1. Bulgaria, already wavering, may be expected to follow suit now that her next door neighbor has deserted the nazi camp.

2. Hungary, which also lies against Rumania's border, is now vulnerable to direct attack—and Hungary is Germany's southeastern shield. The great Danubian basin, which is a gateway into the Reich, will now be open to the allies.

3. Hitler will lose great supplies of which he is in desperate need.

4. The moral effect the world around, especially in Germany and Japan, will be great. It's the sort of thing that's breaking the hearts of the nazis and the Nipponese.

So far as Rumania itself is concerned, it has represented Hitler's greatest source of supplies in the Balkans. Not only has he depended heavily on the Ploesti oil to keep his war machine running, but this fertile Balkan state has been a land flowing with milk and honey.

Rumania produces vast quantities of corn and other foodstuffs which have played their important part in keeping the people of Germany loyal to the fuehrer. No small degree of his success in maintaining his home front has been due to the fact that he has

Early Decision on Postwar Security Agreements Urged

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Evidence from Rumania that Hitler's Europe is beginning to collapse on political as well as military fronts gave new emphasis today to British insistence at the Dumbarton Oaks conferences for early decisions on postwar world security organization.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, chief of the British delegation, has taken the lead in urging that at least a part of the security organization should be set up soon to span the gap between the end of the European war—which he says may come sooner than expected—and the formal creation of a new international league to preserve peace.

The British view, it was learned, is in line with the feeling in some quarters of the American delegation that the British-Russian-American-Chinese pledge made at Moscow to cooperate in the enforcement of peace after the war should now be given some specific and organized form.

Early Meeting Possible

This has raised speculation in diplomatic circles here that the spadework of the Dumbarton Oaks talks might be followed relatively quickly by a meeting of President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin to confirm and set in action three-power cooperation in the European area in the immediate postwar period.

The present plan is to delay a permanent peace agency until all smaller nations have had opportunity to make suggestions and offer criticisms of the proposals to be evolved here.

2,975 Casualties for 5 days' Landings

Washington, Aug. 24—(AP)—Secretary of War Stimson reported today that the first five days of the invasion of southern France cost the Army 2,975 casualties.

The five days began with the landings on the morning of August 15. The killed and missing number 1,221 and the hospitalized 1,754.

The latest overall battle casualty figure for the armed services, on the basis of reports to next-of-kin, is 317,846. For the Army, Stimson put the total at 261,589 up to August 6, and not, of course, including the southern France figures. The Navy said its most recent casualty summation was 56,257.

The Army aggregate of 261,589 included 48,880 killed, 125,931 wounded, 42,956 missing and 43,822 officially reported prisoners.

The Navy's casualty total of 56,257 was divided as follows: 23,135 killed; 19,063 wounded; 9,593 missing and 4,466 prisoners.

French In City Plead For Allies

Sudden About-Face Is Threat to German Status in East

BULLETIN

London, August 24—(AP)—The German radio said tonight that some sections of Paris had "suffered heavy damage" in fighting against French Patriots and that the nazis still controlled the capital.

A dispatch broadcast at 7:20 p. m. (12:20 p. m. CWT) said:

"Terrorists in some districts of the French capital have attempted to seize power. As a result of the struggle waged against these terrorists, some sections have suffered heavy damage".

An earlier German broadcast said Lt. Gen. George S. Patton Jr.'s U. S. Third Army was preparing a sweep on Paris from the southeast from the area of Sens and Troyes in "an outflanking movement on a great scale".

London, Aug. 24—Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters disclosed today that allied troops were fighting their way into Paris, large sections of which are held by the French Forces of the Interior.

Fall of the city is expected momentarily, but so far as allied headquarters is concerned it has not yet been liberated. Gen. Charles DeGaulle and the commander of the French Forces of the Interior, Lt. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig, had announced early yesterday that the capital was liberated and their statements were hailed by governmental leaders the world over.

French underground leaders, after four days of street fighting in Paris, negotiated an "armistice" with the German garrison, pre-

Wilson Resigns as WLB Vice Chairman

Washington, Aug. 24—(AP)—The White House today announced the resignation of Charles E. Wilson as executive vice chairman of the War Production Board.

In a letter of resignation to the president, Wilson said differences among subordinates on the War Production Board had resulted in unfair attacks upon him. Stories that he is opposed to reconversion, Wilson said, were "in my opinion inspired by subordinate officials of the board connected with the personal staff of Mr. Nelson."

The reference was to Donald M. Nelson, WPB chairman, who conferred at length with Roosevelt about two hours before Wilson's resignation was announced.

Wilson said he has encountered "unfair attacks and criticisms."

"Mr. Nelson has disclaimed any responsibility for these attacks," Wilson's letter of resignation continued, "asserting that they were made without his knowledge or approval. x x x He has also repeatedly acknowledged that the staff and I have been fully cooperative in reconversion."

Liberty Ship is Lost in Naples Harbor

Washington, Aug. 24—(AP)—The loss of the Liberty ship James Guthrie off Naples "a few weeks ago" was reported today by the War Shipping Administration.

The James Guthrie and another Liberty ship, the Alexander Graham Bell, had discharged military cargoes at Naples and were starting home when they struck mines. Although extensively damaged, the Alexander Graham Bell has reached a home port. There were no casualties.

German Hopes of Making Long Stand in France Shattered Says Sec. Stimson

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Secretary Stimson said today allied military victories coupled with the rising of French forces have shattered German hopes of making a prolonged stand even in northern France.

The secretary of war told a news conference:

"This has been an historic week—the climax of the battle of northern France, the forward surge of the allies in southern France, the liberation of Paris and now Rumania's abandonment of the axis.

"On every side Germany weakens. Now is the time for us to muster all our strength and unity for the final blows. • • •

"The liberation of Paris by the French people themselves after our own American forces had half encircled the city is a fitting demonstration of the waning power of the nazis and the rebirth of freedom."

Stimson said that already the great bulk of metropolitan France has been liberated, for all practical purposes, by the combined actions of allied armies and the French people themselves.

In the midst of success, he reminded, it still is necessary to remember that a substantial number of divisions of the German Fifteenth army in the Calais area were not yet in combat. Standing north of the Seine river he said, they undoubtedly will seek to reorganize such Seventh army units as manage to escape from Normandy and increase their strength.

Super Food Agency Plan Announced by Council This Week

Mixed Reactions Are Result of Newest Food Setup

Washington, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The proposed international food and agriculture organization offers the world no magic formula for easing mankind's struggle for food and clothing.

No group is more aware of this than its author—the interim commission of the United Nations food conference which met at Hot Springs, Va., last year. The conference directed the commission to draft plans for a postwar world agency to help all nations eliminate hunger within their borders and to improve conditions for farmers.

The outline of such an agency was announced earlier this week by the commission. Reactions to the agency were mixed. Some persons hailed it as an instrument for blotting out hunger. Others expressed keen disappointment because the organization was given no powers whatsoever to protect farm prices.

These conflicting reactions reflect largely deep-seated differences of viewpoint as to the character of postwar food and agricultural problems. These differences might be tagged roughly consumer and producer viewpoints

In simple words—consumers want plenty of food at cheap prices. Farmers, on the other hand, want to produce abundantly, but only at remunerative prices.

Consumer Viewpoint

Broadly speaking, the consumer viewpoint of the future food problem is this: World food production must be expanded sharply if all persons are to have enough to assure them health-sustaining diets In other words, the task ahead is one of pushing production to levels never before reached.

The producer retorts: What you say is true, but what about prices and markets for expanded production? In the past, farmers have often been confronted with unmarketable surpluses and ruinously low prices. We fear the return of surpluses and low prices after military demands of the war disappear.

The consumer viewpoint sees the job of the international agency largely that of promoting increased production.

The producer viewpoint sees the task as largely one of stabilizing world markets and prices.

The world agency must represent both viewpoints and it must reconcile its seemingly dual responsibility.

The bigger part of the job will be outside the scope of the food organization. Before agriculture can produce abundantly, consumers must have the money to buy its products. Money means jobs. A well-fed world must of necessity be a well-employed world.

Thus the formula for freeing the world from hunger must include not only prescriptions for increasing food production, but recipes for putting millions to work.

Paris Liberation is Unconfirmed by SHAEF

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The liberation of Paris had the distinction today of still not being confirmed directly by Supreme Headquarters 21 hours after the original report came from one of Supreme Headquarters' ramifications.

The first announcement was made in London by French forces, broadcast by BBC and picked up by the Allies' Algiers radio and news agencies.

This is not intended to imply that there was anything incorrect in the liberation report, but unquestionably there is something odd about the way it came out.

Former Owners May Get Land Preference

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—Unanimous approval by the senate military affairs committee of surplus war property disposition legislation, Senator Scott W. Lucas said yesterday, included a guarantee of preference to former owners in repurchase of government land "at a price that was paid by the government plus or minus increase value or damages or current market value, whichever is lower."

The Illinois senator said he had urged such a guarantee to prevent government profit in resales of excess land, as was charged by some formers owners near Hopolis.

Sulfa Drugs Are Also Saving Farm Animals

Chicago, Aug. 24—(AP)—The sulfa drugs, which have been effective against a number of human diseases, are helping to save the lives of thousands of farm animals, a speaker reported today at the American Veterinary Medical convention.

Dr. W. T. S. Thorp of Pennsylvania state college said extensive research has shown that sulfathalidine and sulfaguanadine produce "very good results" when used for swine enteritis, an intestinal inflammation.

Sulfathalidine showed "favorable results," he said on 75 cases of calf scours, a form of septicemia. Use of sulfamerazine for calf pneumonia has been "very encouraging," he added.

He emphasized that the sulfa drugs should be used on animals only under guidance of a veterinary physician.

Day By Day On the Air

by

C. E. BUTTERFIELD

(Central War Time)

New York, Aug. 21—(AP)—Salutes to Paris, with the French national anthem, "The Marseillaise", as the basic theme and all arranged on short notice, comprised the networks' greetings on the day of liberation of the capital so long under nazi domination.

At the same time the broadcasters got to work on plans to put the city back on the air in this country through the regular or special short wave facilities. There had not been a direct relay from Paris since before the German entry on June 14, 1940.

The salutes on NBC and MBS were in the form of musical tributes, with Lily Pons, French-born singer, participating on NBC. CBS presented a documentary on the theme of "Paris Is Free".

The BLUE is delaying its broadcast until 7 o'clock this evening, to be a dramatization, "Bench on the Key", based on four years of German occupation.

Edgar Bergen's new dummy with the characteristics of an old maid, about which he and particularly his co-workers have been so busy lately creating a buildup atmosphere, is to be called Effie Klinker. He'll introduce her to the listeners and Charlie McCarthy when he comes back to NBC Sept. 3.

Bergen, when he first began talking publicly about Effie, reported he didn't have a name and asked listeners to write. He says he got 4,000 letters, including those of Mrs. Luke Meyers of Los Angeles and Mrs. Robert Hattel of Milwaukee, both of whom picked the Klinker cognomen.

The Democratic national committee announces that the acceptance speech of Sen. Harry S. Truman as the Democratic vice presidential candidate, to be delivered from his birthplace, Lamar, Mo., will be an all-network broadcast the night of August 31. It will go on at 9:30 p. m.

Quota of Clothing for Greeks is Still Unmet in This City

Nearly one and one-half tons of clothes have been collected to date in the local War Relief Drive for garments which are to be forwarded to Greece in an attempt to forestall suffering in that country during the coming winter.

The campaign, which has been under way for a number of weeks, is still short of its quota and more clothes are needed, particularly in the children's sizes, ages 5 to 11.

Committeemen today called attention to the pick-up service which is being maintained in Dixon by the De Luze Cleaners. Householders who are able to deliver their contributions to the downtown area should stop at Tom's shoe shop, 103 Peoria avenue.

Jimmy Joy

Jimmy Joy, who brings his famous orchestra to Sterling Coliseum on Saturday, August 26, through arrangements with Music Corporation of America, knows his trends in music from long and successful experience.

People have been "Dancing with Joy" at such outstanding hostelries as the Brown Hotel, Louisville; the Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati; the Coronado Hotel, St. Louis.

Joy is the only bandleader who can play two clarinets at the same time. His versatility does not stop att hat, however; he also sings blues songs in a manner reminiscent of Jack Teagarden and Ray McKinley.

Gang starts off with popular tunes and people immediately "dance with Joy." At the command of their leader, gang offers fox-trots, dreamy waltzes, swing and many novelties, all with outstanding success

Jimmy describes his own current style as "solid sweet" using mostly a "full" ensemble, which proves that he has faith in his own predictions.

A Thought for Today

Without faith it is impossible to please Him; for he that commeth to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.—Hebrews 11:6.

To take up half on trust, and half to try,
Name it not faith but bungling bigotry.
—Dryden.

The Old Refrain

The Justice Department has recently blasted American railroads because of the higher freight rates which prevail in the south and west on several types of commodities. It talks of "transportation monopoly" and "private conspiracies" and "discriminatory rates." And while there may be much truth and much righteous anger in what the department says, there certainly isn't much that is new.

These higher rates have existed for a long time. So has the debate as to whether they are just a plain evil or a necessary one. Numerous efforts have been made to correct the discrepancies, including a conference of southern and western governors which got nowhere.

Last year the Justice Department made substantially the same charges against the railroads it is making now. Apparently nothing was done. And there is little if any new evidence in the current statement by Assistant Attorney General Wendell Berge except a hint that "secret private agreements" of a monopolistic nature have been discovered.

What are these secret agreements, and what is being done about them? Mr. Berge says that "either the log jam must be broken by mandatory governmental orders prescribing lower rates, or else the industry's power to maintain its monopoly pricing must be broken."

Certainly the government has power to do either where illegalities are involved. One might wonder where the Interstate Commerce Commission has been during all this. The ICC fixes maximum freight rates. If the railroads are violating these rate ceilings and have been these many years, it would seem that the time for tirades is past and the time for action is here.

Mr. Berge puts the chief blame for the industrial under-development of the west and the south on the railroads. He charges that their high freight rates have precluded industrial expansion and have so hamstrung present industry as to maintain a low living standard. It is hard to discover any logical reason for the railroads' doing this, since it obviously would threaten their future prosperity.

American railroads have done a tremendous job these past three years in getting men and supplies from camp and factory to seaport and thence to battle. They have done this in spite of shortages.

That is fact, and not an attempt to forgive them any illegal practices. But it does seem as if the Justice Department should either translate their accusatons into specific charges and do something about them, or, else resist the temptation to yell "monopoly" and let it go at that.

Fair Enough
by
WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York—A studious observation of the controversies of the last few years in our country brings it home to me that we no longer debate, if we ever did in my time, but confine ourselves to claim, or boast, and accusation. That is to say, in an ancient political phrase, we point with pride and view with alarm. But seldom, even in congress, are issues actually debated.

A new deal orator or journalist will say, for example, that President Roosevelt is a great friend of labor and cite the Wagner Act as proof of his militant love for the working man. He presumes that it will be conceded that the Wagner Act is all that he says it is. Other men and women, of contrary opinion, might like to argue that this law is dangerous to labor, meaning the people who work for wages, although a great boon to the professional organizer and union politician, and to the new deal party.

But the question is never debated, head-on. The new dealer makes his claim in the course of a speech or article and rushes on to insist that therefore Roosevelt should have the workers' votes.

The one who insists that the Wagner Act deliberately exposes workers to oppression, exploitation, and intimidation by the unions, and that behind it all is a cunning scheme to hitch labor in chains to Roosevelt's chariot, does so in another form, over another hookup or in another publication. The point is that they never meet in public, whether on platform or printed page, and argue the issues in detail, speaking strictly to the subject, as Huey Long used to say.

In that form of oratory which passes for debate, Huey was a master, himself. For that matter, he was a great debater in the true meaning of the word, as good lawyers agreed who heard his argument before the 1932 Democratic convention. But in speaking to the whole public, Huey actually won over multitudes by showing contempt for their intelligence. Thus, in one oration over the air he got his best effect by smearing Hugh Johnson as a chocolate soldier who had never snapped a cap. This was unfair and irrelevant. It was unfair because everyone who knew Johnson knew he was not a dandy, or chocolate soldier but downright slovenly and that one of the great disappointments of his life in the Army had been his inability to get overseas with a command. But the whole reference had absolutely nothing to do with the subject under discussion.

In one of Big Bill Thompson's campaigns in Chicago a rather austere opponent who had been sticking to the issues patiently and conscientiously in an effort to arouse the people to intelligent consideration, found all his earnest presentation offset by Thompson's ribaldry. Thompson said his opponent had egg on his necktie, which may have been true, but still had no bearing on the subject. Finally, Thompson's opponent let fly with a roar one night that Bill had the hide of a rhinoceros and the brain of a baboon. That wowed them, although it did not win for him. But it touched Thompson more than anything else that had been said of him in the campaign.

I have been told that a southern senator first won his seat by campaigning in an old Model T flivver in misfit clothes and waving the crowds a bill of fare from one of the expensive Washington hotels which listed such luxuries as caviar at $3 a portion and steak at $8 for four. He would explain that caviar was just nothing but fish eggs and imported from Red Russia at that, and point out that honest, God-fearing people were lucky to sell a whole cow, on the hoof, for $8. I am not sure that his opponent ever lived at the hotel. There was no evidence that he was selling out his constituents to "the interests' so as to be able to buy imported fish eggs at $3 an ounce. The whole idea was one of suggestion. The successful candidate, incidentally, is a man who has been noted for his fastidious dress and luxurious living in Washington in the years since he was first elected.

During the conventions of the two big parties in Chicago, many speakers sounded off on many subjects, promising or condemning. But the only possible way to weigh the opposing claims and charges was to wait until the Democrats were through and then go back over the text in the papers which, of course, nobody did. Not a word was said in defense or answer in either convention. Every speaker just claimed, promised, or attacked, with no facilities provided for disproof.

Debate is abandoned in our politics, unless you count those squalling radio forums in which the speakers seldom have a chance to prepare arguments and are subject to heckiement, with loaded questions.

Ask Solidification of AFL, CIO Labor Unions

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 21—(AP)—The AFL's International Typographical Union, expressing fear that the post-war era will be critical for organized labor, asks the AFL and CIO to join in a "unified labor front."

The ITU's 87th annual convention unanimously approved a resolution last night urging the AFL and CIO peace committees to "begin immediate conferences to unite these two great labor organizations."

The post-war era will impose tests requiring labor's "strongest efforts to withstand," the resolution said.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS
By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington—No private telephone or backoffice appendages were involved in the Hull-Dewey front page jockeying on world peace.

The participants spoke all they had to say in headlines. But the refined politics, the subtle parry and thrust, were neglected in the reports, although these established Dewey in a new international character and will be of inestimable importance in the campaign.

The administration's campaign policy has been to play Dewey to the public as a barefoot boy in international affairs, without experience or ability for leadership. To tear down this conception has probably been the most difficult technical task of the Republican leadership, because by common understanding (without any agreement whatsoever) partisan discussion of war or peace has somehow been made taboo.

At the same time, Roosevelt has been using war and peace developments as his justification for the fourth term. In fact, this has been his whole campaign thus far.

Some months ago I wrote that he intended to go to Europe to campaign from the peace table, but I understand now he may go to China first.

Perhaps the Russians may not have desired to talk definite post-war political arrangements at the top man level, at this time. Possibly our conquest of the nazis may not have moved as fast as expected. In either event, this current Dumbarton Oaks conference of ambassadors and undersecretaries may not be over when the European war is over, and Roosevelt might have to talk to Churchill alone in Europe, rather than have a big conference before election.

The Dewey developments fairly well broke into this general line of Roosevelt's campaign. It happened this way:

The Russian plan for an international air force under a world organization bestirred Dewey to speak out against domination of the world by the big four nations to the detriment of the smaller ones.

This is a subject closer to State Secretary Hull's heart than to Churchill's or Stalin's and Hull may have secretly welcomed this help from an unexpected source. But he handled the matter in accordance with the administration campaign strategy, retorting that Dewey did not know what he was talking about, suggesting that if Dewey came down here he would see there was nothing secret in the conference.

This was supposed to shut Dewey up, but he accepted an invitation which was not seriously intended, or even formally offered and he came forward to fill it with an international adviser of recognized experience equal or beyond that of Hull (longer anyway). He demanded that the big four keep their armies out of world economies and submitted the first concrete proposal for post-war action that went beneath the surface of generalities.

George Foster Dulles, his mentor, wrote the peace program for the Federal Council of Churches and the American Bar Association, two elements which could just about elect Dewey in this church-going, middle class nation, if the race were close. At any rate he is an old League of Nations man, whereas the administration had set up a campaign against Dewey as an isolationist.

Furthermore Dewey put his shoes on and demanded internationalization of the Ruhr valley, something specific and far beyond the general agreeing-to-agree expected from the Dumbarton Oaks meeting.

He could even have gone further and proposed that the proceeds of the coal mines, the iron mills and the great lumber forests in that Ruhr source of German power be used to rehabilitate the post-war world, instead of our money exclusively.

What more equal or fairer justice could be prescribed than that the area, formerly run by an international syndicate, of French, Belgian and German business men until Hitler stole it from them, restore with its resources the damage Hitler has done!

The French tried to make the Ruhr pay for the last war. The Germans always outmaneuvered them. Even after the French moved their armies in January 11, 1923 they were unable to get lumber and coal reparations promised, because of German passive resistance.

The Germans finally got the Dawes plan, whereby they made others pay their repartions to the French, and, if I am not mistaken, they borrowed money from us for that purpose.

Finally the French got 490 million marks in cash and 491 millions in goods at an expense of 181 millions out of the Ruhr, but the internationalization of that area now would not only destroy the roots of German war power (leaving them only 20 per cent of their coal and iron production) but it could be made to pay some of our own war debt, since we largely have financed this war.

Willkie has acted like a bear with a bruised nose, and this has not required acting ability. First Roosevelt tried to get Willkie's following by inviting him to come to the White House. Now Dewey invited him to Albany.

He went neither place, but he spoke of "our party" in his telegram to Dewey, while he is supposed to have told Roosevelt he did not intend to get roped in politically.

Now the game here is to draw Messrs. Dulles and Dewey into definite committments as they have come thus far. Some Republican senators fear their candidate will become involved at Dumbarton in specific arrangements which will not prove popular. I do not think so, (specific agreements are unlikely), at least I believe Dewey's intention is fully to protect himself.

To date, anyway, Dewey thus has adroitly moved to dispel the administration campaign illusion of his incapacity and isolationism and interposed upon the basic Roosevelt campaign scheme. In short, he has put his shoes on—and kicked.

The Life of EISENHOWER
By Francis Trevelyan Miller
First Biography of America's Great General

Copyright, 1944, Ann Woodward Miller; Distributed, NEA Service, Inc.

"WE COME AS FRIENDS . . ."

XVI

AT the end of October, a story was "planted" in the newspapers to the effect that General Eisenhower had been recalled to the United States for a series of discussions. This rumor accounted for his absence, an absence later explained by the fact that the general went to Gibraltar. He was given command of the fortress.

"Never in my wildest dreams in my West Point days," he said, "did I ever think that I—an American general—would ever command the British fortress of Gibraltar."

His headquarters were under 1400 feet of solid rock and constituted 40 rooms. The only exercise the general and his staff was able to get consisted of running to their offices through a dripping tunnel. Many a private was startled at the sight of his commander and his staff sprinting through the narrow passageway.

To outwit Hitler and divert German attention, General Eisenhower had ordered that units of American forces be outfitted for the Arctic. The Eisenhower strategy worked perfectly. The Germans were reported to be bolstering their defenses in Norway.

All through the night of Nov. 7, General Eisenhower worked in his cavern headquarters. Great events were impending; great chances were being taken. The die was being cast. In his hand he held a decoded message. It was from General Marshall, back in Washington, and read:

"You and your command sailed with the hopes and prayers of America. For months you have planned, trained, and conditioned yourselves for the great task ahead. Godspeed to your success. I have complete confidence in your leadership and in the aggressive fighting quality of your troops."

General Eisenhower, his features tense and lined by tremendous strain, read dispatches, issued orders, and waited. . . .

On the morning of Nov. 8, 1942, the world was startled by the news: "The Americans have landed in North Africa."

The greatest armada in the world's history, up to that time—850 ships—had brought the first American army to the battlefront. They had landed during the night hours and at daybreak were engaged in a gigantic pincer movement. Within 76 hours they had won 1300 miles of the coasts of North and West Africa, advancing from Algiers and Morocco.

Eisenhower, with the aid of the British, had outwitted Hitler and Mussolini.

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S only comment as he left Gibraltar to advance his headquarters to North Africa was, "The only thing I was disappointed in was the resistance of the French Navy, particularly the coast batteries. We don't want to fight the French and they are opposing us, holding up the job and expending effort which might well be used against the common enemy—Germany."

General Eisenhower's mission was to liberate the French from their Nazi captives, not to engage in warfare against them. Appealing to them in his name this message was broadcast:

"Frenchmen of North Africa, the forces which I have the honor of commanding, come to you as friends to make war against your enemies. This is a military operation directed against the Italian-German military forces in North Africa. Our only objective is to defeat the enemy and to free France. I need not tell you that we have no designs either on North Africa or on any part of the French Empire. We count on your friendship, and we ask your aid.

"I have given formal orders that no offensive action be undertaken against you on condition that you for your part take the same attitude. To avoid any possible misunderstanding, make the following signals: Fly the French tri-color and the American flag, by day, one above the other. I repeat, by day, fly the French tricolor and the American flag, one above the other, or two—I repeat, two tri-colors, one above the other. By night, turn on a searchlight and direct it vertically toward the sky. I repeat, by night, turn on a searchlight and direct it vertically toward the sky.

"We come, I repeat, as friends—not as enemies, we shall not be the first to fire. Follow exactly the orders which I have just given you. Thus you will avoid any possibility of a conflict, which could only be useful to our enemies. We summon you as comrades to the common fight against the invaders of France. The war has entered the phase of liberation."

The voice over the radio, speaking in General Eisenhower's name, rang out over land, sea and air.

"Frenchmen of North Africa: Faithful to the traditional and age-old friendship of the government and people of the United States for France and French North Africa, a great American army is landing on your soil. The purpose of the mission is to protect the people of French North Africa from the threat of Italo-German invasion. Our principal aim is the same as in 1917, that is to say, the annihilation of the enemy and the complete liberation of invaded France. The day when the Italo-German threat no longer menaces French territory we will leave your soil. The sovereignty of France over French territory remains complete. We know we can count on your support to open the road which leads to victofy and peace. All together we shall triumph."

Within two days an armistice was reached—the French ceased firing and Algiers and French Morocco surrendered on Nov. 9, 1942.

Vernon Wolfram — Claims Emma Smith as Bride at Ohio

The First Lutheran church in Ohio was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday, that of Miss Emma Smith of Ohio, and Vernon C. Wolfram, son of Mrs. Amy Wolfram of Dixon. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Kalkworf in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends of the bridal couple. Tall baskets of pink gladioli were used against a background of greenery, and white asters on the church altar, for the candlelight ceremony that was read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Carl Kalkworf was nuptial musician, playing a medley of numbers preceding the ceremony and also accompanied Mrs. Harold Ackerman, who sang I Love You Truly (Bond) and Because (d'Hardelot.)

The bride entered the church to the strains of The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin,, wearing a wedding gown of white marquisette made with a long train and a sweetheart neckline which was embroidered with tiny beads. She carried a small Bible, a gift of the bridegroom, from which white satin ribbon streamers inter-twined with tiny pink hhes and blue forget-me-nots.

Vivian Wolfram, sister of the bridegroom, who is an American Red Cross recreation director at Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyo., came from Cheyenne to be the bride's maid of honor. She wore a dress of aqua marquisette with a matching halo and carried a colonial bouquet of pink lilies, roses and baby's breath.

The bridegroom was attended by the bride's brother, Grover Smith. Earnest Norden and Martin Mueller ushered. The flower girl and ring bearer, Joyce and George Norden, daughter and son of the Earnest Nordens, are cousins of the bride. Joyce wore a blue voille floor length dress trimmed in pink rosebuds. George was wearing a white suit.

The bride's mother wore a lavender dress with white accessories and Mrs. Wolfram, the bridegroom's mother, was dressed in navy with rose accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white gladioli.

A reception for a large number of guests followed the wedding ceremony and was held in the Lutheran hall which was decorated in blue and white, the bride's chosen colors, and white asters and pink gladioli. The refreshment table held as its centerpiece, a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Ladies of the Lutheran church served and Forrest King, Jr. and Russell Helfrich assisted.

The bride is a graduate of the Ohio Community high school with the class of 1941, and the groom was graduated from the Amboy township high school. After a brief honeymoon he and his bride will be at home on a farm south of Dixon where he is engaged in farming.

Relatives and friends attending the wedding came from Evanston, Chicago, Decatur, Rushville, Polo, Dixon, Princeton, Cheyenne, Wyo. and San Jose, Cal.

Hats Go Sky High

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer

New York—Pint-sized girls who covet more inches can add them to the top of their heads with new skyscraper hats—an important silhouette for fall—which can do as much to stretch out length as the cake that Alice in Wonderland ate. Some of these new tall-making hats tower as high as 12 inches; height that's achieved by zooming trimming upward or by designers' twists with fabric or felt.

Often the lofty look of these high-hat fashions comes from airy mountain peaks of veiling, which are particularly enchanting when a flock of misty tints are used in color-upon-color effects. Frequently, however, the sky-pointing business depends upon feathers—plucked from both the barnyard and aviary. What gives these swirling tufts or plumes a sleek new look is a spray bath of glycerin or metallic paint, an example of which you'll see on the model at the right. Launched by Lily Dache in her fall collection, the upswinging coq feather, shined up with metallic paint, nestles on a helmet of velour felt in a new metal shade of grade called palladium.

But not all high hats get their loftiness from trimmings. Sometimes high peaks are solid towers of felt or fabric, cleverly manipulated by designers to look lofty but not top-heavy, as in the new Dache Liberty bonnet, shown at the left, with the peaked forward twisted crown. In Cherbourg blue—the blue of neon lights—this hat is a 1914 version of the famous Marianne cap worn by the symbolic figure of French Liberty—the designer's tribute to the Liberated French.

Women Who Took War Jobs Must Fight for Their Rights

By RUTH MILLETT

When the draft first caused a manpower shortage and women were told that it was their duty to go into war plants to work, Mrs. Jones went out and got herself a job.

There was nothing but praise for her at the time. Because everybody knew that if we were to win the war a lot of women who had never before worked outside their homes would have to help win the war by going to work for pay checks.

But the war is going well now, and many people think they see the end in sight. So there is little praise today for Mrs. Jones and the wives who have helped in the building of ships and planes and the running of all kinds of businesses.

America is looking to the future, and too many of America's spokesmen are seeing Mrs. Jones, not as a loyal, hard-working citizen who answered her country's call, but as a woman who is holding down a job she will no longer be entitled to compete for when the war is over.

Senator Andrews of Florida is reported to have said the other day that education and persuasion might lead working women homeward—but that he thought a law giving veterans, other men and single girls preference on jobs "probably would be more practical."

Mockery

Most thinking people today believe that servicemen should be given a break in the peace time world. After all, when peace comes it is they who will have won it for us.

But the women who helped turn out the implements of war and the women who helped keep civilian business going had a part in fighting the war, too. They did what was asked of them during the fight. To legislate against them would make a mockery of the democratic principles for which we are told the war is being fought.

Women should fight that kind of talk and fight it in the only way that it will do any good—as a group determined that their democratic rights shall not be taken from them.

Country Club Ladies' Day Golf Winners

A large number of feminine golfers were out for the regular ladies' day at the Dixon Country club yesterday and experienced ideal golfing weather when they teed off at 2:30 o'clock. When scores were counted, Mrs. John Mills and Mrs. Gene Barrowman were winners for the day's games. About 15 joined the golfers at the clubhouse for dinner later in the evening.

Members are reminded to send in their reservations by Tuesday noon next week for the dinner that will follow the regular ladies' day play on Wednesday.

Maquis Use Parachutes to Make Underdrawers

U. S. Bomber Base in England, Aug. 24—(AP)—Women in southern France were doubly pleased when U. S. Flying Fortresses dropped guns and supplies to the Maquis—they used the silk parachutes to make underdrawers.

Facts behind three Fortress missions to the guerrillas, kept secret for months, were disclosed today. An American infantry general and American Marines were on the ground with the Maquis.

"The French women really went for those silk parachutes," said Col. Karl Truesdale, Jr., Washington, D. C., whose group led the first two missions. "They made drawers out of them. They had a choice in colors, too. Red, white and yellow parachutes were used."

RAILROADS' REVENUE UP

Wall St. News

New York, Aug. 24—(AP) — The stock market, with scattered exceptions limped into lower territory today without being given much of a liquidating push.
While issues with good peace prospects did better than others that may face reconversion difficulties, bidding for these was on the timid side and few were able to make any notable progress. Quitting of Rumania and the quickened allied drive against the nazis accentuated investment conservatism. The coming long weekend — principal exchanges again will suspend Saturday—also inspired the trimming of commitments in preparation for happenings during the interval.
Rails dropped from the opening on, holderes seemingly suffering a belated chill over the anti-trust suit against 47 roads. Steels and motors also were down fractions tho a point or more. Transfers were around 800,000 shares.
Secondary railway bonds skidded. Commodities, led by cotton which was buoyed by the move to raise the loan rate on this staple, stiffened after early softness.
Cotton, toward the last, was up $1.50 to $1.65 a bale.

45 Luftwaffe Planes Shot Down Yesterday

Rome, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The U. S. 15th Air Force chewed off another hunk of the Luftwaffe's fast dwindling power in central Europe yesterday, destroying 45 enemy planes in the course of sweeping raids which included a heavy attack upon the Vienna area.
The battle of attrition over central Europe thus has cost the nazis at least 102 planes in the last two days, in addition to 100 reported destroyed recently in raids on airdromes in Hungary and Yugoslavia.
Allied air losses likewise have been heavy. Twenty-nine aircraft were lost yesterday and three during the preceding night.

French in City

sumably on the terms that the nazis were to leave the city, supreme headquarters of the allied expeditionary force said. The Germans apparently repudiated the agreement and kept on fighting and the underground called on the allies for help.

Greater Operation

While great popular interest centered on the struggle in Paris, an operation of far greater military import was going on down the Seine where allied armies were attempting to destroy utterly the fleeing German armies.
The "armistice" negotiations by the French street fighters in Paris apparently were made without previous knowledge of the supreme command. A directive provides that no field commander can negotiate an armistice with the Germans unless Gen. Eisenhower gives his consent.
The feeling was expressed at supreme headquarters that the underground operations in Paris and the subsequent call for help resulted in the use of allied troops which might well have been employed in operations of greater military significance.
It is expected at supreme headquarters, however, that German resistance before the city will be of a "rear guard" character.
Up to a late hour today, no word had been received at supreme headquarters that allied forces actually had entered Paris.

BATTLE FOR FRANCE

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, Aug. 24.—(AP) — American armored columns streaked along the Seine today in a drive toward the sea, capturing Elbeuf, 30 miles from the river's broad mouth, and rapidly throwing a noose around another huge force of Germans in northern France.
A new lightning advance of 25 miles from last reported positions bverran Elbeuf, south of the river, and drove the Germans from positions where in the past few days they have been hurriedly ferrying out their fleeing troops. In that area allied airmen destroyed 500 German vehicles yesterday.
The German high command declared today German troops had pushed American formations back across the Seine at La Roche-Guyon, eight miles northwest of Nantes in the sector northwest of Paris.

Claim Yanks Thrown Back

(The broadcast communique declared American forces which had crossed the Seine northeast of Fontainebleau, southeast of Paris, also had been pushed back.)
At Elbeuf the Americans stood within nine airline miles of Rouen, old capital of Normandy and a city of more than 100,000 which sits astride a bend in the river to the north.
Canadian and British armies drove deep indentations into the western fringes of the trap, although meeting some determined German resistance, particularly east of captured Lisieux.
Field dispatches said the Germans, now denied ferry crossings in the Rouen area, had shifted to others, still more difficult, nearer the Seine delta.

Two More Spearheads

Southeast of Paris the Americans thrust two more spearheads across the Seine in the vicinity of Fontainebleau. There was no further news of an American armored column which last was reported 15 miles beyond Sens, 65 miles southeast of Paris, in a drive aimed toward the borders of Germany, 150 miles away.
The German air force reacted violently to these latest direct American advances toward the Reich, but allied fliers shot down 37 of the enemy's planes. The allies lost four planes.
The German high command however, gave no air support to its trapped Seventh and 15th army forces south of the lower Seine.
Night attacks by RAF Mosquitos raised the 24-hour bag of German tanks, barges and vehicles destroyed and damaged to around 1,000.

MAIN BATTLE OVER
By Hal Boyle

With U. S. Troops Southest of Paris, Aug. 23—(Delayed)—(AP) —the main battle for France already is over.
There apparently remains in France no German strength capable of long retaining the nazi grip on this country, and the goal of every fornt-line Doughboy and tankman facing the east tonight is the German border—then Berlin and victory.
U. S. infantry and armor, breaking through light ground resistance but fighting off swarms of nazi planes, have driven beyond Sens to within about 150 miles of the German frontier.
I drove more than 50 miles to Sens and beyond today and never saw a corpse or a flaming vehicle. Truckloads of German prisoners streamed back from advance elements. Behind there are only a few German guerrilla outfits trying desperately to escape to east of the Seine.
The road from Pithiviers to Sens and beyond is one long lane of rapturously happy French citizens. At every freshly-liberated village they swarm around every Army vehicle that pauses and shower the troops with fresh apples, pears, bright flowers and wine.
Many German units appear completely disorganized as a result of the widespread communications breakdown.
During the day German planes made a series of raids on front-line troops but Thunderbolt fighters and heavy anti-aircraft fire brought down a number of them and drove the rest away.

Caught by Surprise

At an infantry command post in the Sens area, Maj. A. K. Clark of Lincoln, Neb., told how fast-moving American armor had caught high nazi officers completely by surprise.
"They had their main head-quarters in the Hotel de Paris in Sens, and the manager said that the German officers appeared completely unworried and told him there was no possibility of the Americans getting that far.
"He returned about five minutes later and found these same nazi officers madly ransacking drawers and packing everything they could lay their hands on. Then they took off on bicycles or any other vehicle they could find.
"Five minutes later the first American armored vehicle rolled into the outskirts of the city. These Germans still can't believe how fast we can roll. They are completely disorganized now — they don't seem to know themselves what they are doing".
The Germans fled so quickly they failed to blow the bridge spanning the Yonne rivre—a sure sign that their communications were chaotic and that they had to flee with only brief warning. They left huge stores of military booty.
"We found at least 30 carloads of diesel and fuel oil", Major Clark said, "and one carload of coffee and another carload of canned fish and canned beef and jam".

Mothers Champ News Boys to be Honored

Washingtno, Aug. 21—(AP)—Mothers of 11 champion war stamp salesmen among the nation's 150,000 newspaper boys and girls will be designated by the Maritime Commission to christen new ships in October, the War Finance Division of the treasury department announced today.
Designations will be based on results of 11 sectional competitions being conducted by newspapers participating in the treasury's "newspaper boys for victory" program.
Howard W. Stodghill, chairman of the newspaper advisory committee of the treasury, said the carrier boy or girl achieving the largest increase in sales of 10-cent war stamps during the eight weeks from July 15 to September 9 will be designated winner in each of the 11 regions.
All expenses of the winners and their mothers to the nearest maritime commission shipyard will be assumed by the local newspaper which they will represent at each ceremony.
The Maritime Commission will hold the launchings either on Oct. 7, national newspaper boy day, or the nearest day possible in accordance with the readiness of the vessels for launching.

Fire Strikes East St. Louis Stockbarns

East St. Louis, Ill., Aug. 24—(AP)—A fire across the street from the national stockyards today destroyed two livestock barns, damaged two other buildings and burned to death 10 horses and mules.
Four firemen were taken to St. Mary's hospital with injuries received in the collapse of a brick wall of the Harper Brothers livestock company barn. James C. Melicher had head and leg injuries and Maurice Andrews, Virgil Austin and John Habrook were treated for lacerations.
Firemen said the blaze started in the brick building and destroyed an adjoining wooden barn. Buildings next to the Harper Company housing a men's store and restaurant were damaged.
Police joined in rounding up 60 horses and mules released from the wooden building. Two horses were found on MacArthur bridge seevral miles from the fire.

Party Leaders Predict Nov. Democratic Win

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—(AP) —Democratic victories in the Nov. 7 election for the state and national tickets were predicted by party leaders yesterday as they met to map their fall campaign.
Prospects in Illinois for victory "are definitely on the upgrade, the party leaders told state central committeemen who met yesterday to discuss plans for opening the campaign Sept. 11.
Bruce A. Campbell, Belleville, chairman of the downstate Democratic campaign committee, said that whereas chances for Democratic victory downstate "looked dark six months ago, today the situation is exactly reversed."

All Politics in Hungary Abolished

London, Aug. 24—(AP) — The nazi-controlled puppet regime of Hungary ordered today the dissolution of all political parties, apparently fearing intrigue to take Hungary out of the war.
The cabinet order was published in the official gazette and as reported by DNB, official German news agency, decreed that every political party "irrespective of its political outlook," must dissolve at once.
Property belonging to former party organizations was frozen pending further disposition. Severe penalties were provided for violations.

Nazis Kill Citizens in Paris Streets

London, Aug. 24.—(AP)—German troops and tanks paraded through the streets of Paris three days before its liberation "firing into crowds and killing many civilians," Lt. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig said in a communique today.

China, Japan and Germany are all claimants to the honor of introducing macaroni to the world.

Rumania in Allied

nounced acceptance of armistice terms, reports reaching London told of German troop withdrawals from southern Greece in apparent preparation for a large scale contraction of their lines in southeastern Europe. A quick, grand withdrawal now is even more imperative. Bulgaria faces the choice of capitulation or invasion, and Hitler must concentrate on holding Hungary in line.
King Mihai's proclamation said the conquest of Transylvania, half of which Hitler awarded to Hungary in the Vienna dictate in 1940, was a major Rumanian objective. He summoned all Rumania's armed forces to the side of the allies as a co-belligerent and said "We shall cross the frontiers unjustly imposed upon us at Vienna so as to liberate our Transylvania from enemy occupation".
Antonescu was reported to have fled to Germany. The new premier, Konstantin Sanatescu, pledged a "democratic regime". The anti-nazi peasant leader, Juliu Maniu, is a minister without portfolio in the new government. A Swiss radio broadcast said General Mihail was new Rumanian commander in chief.
Some optimistic prophets in London said there was a good chance for the European war to end before Oct. 1 on the basis of Rumanian switch. In 1918, Bulgaria was the German keystone in this war. The allied offensive through Salonika knocked out Bulgaria in 1918 just as the German situation on the western front became critical. On Sept. 29, 1918, Bulgaria signed an armistice and the German high command decided to sue for peace. The appeal went to President Wilson and 42 days after Bulgaria quit the war was over.
Ludendorff wrote later that the Balkan crackup "sealed the doom" of the central powers because they could not simultaneously reinforce two separate and critical fronts. This time, Germany is in a far worse predicament. There are critical fronts in all directions.

20 Miles from Gateway

At Salon, the Americans were but 20 miles from Arles at the south end of the Rhone, a natural gateway into France.
Headquarters gave no details of the French drive westward from Marseille toward the lower Rhone.
Other French units, it declared, were mopping up German pockets in the naval base of Toulon to the east.
There was no official word on U. S. mobile columns that seized Grenoble, 140 miles north of Marseille and within 140 miles of a junction with the armies in western France.
Collaborating with the fast-stepping allied columns were B-25's which bombed two bridges ahead of two German Panzer divisions, headed apparently for the Riviera beachhead.
As long ago as Wednesday noon the French and Americans had slammed into the city's outskirts after overwhelming the suburbs of Mont du Paradis, Carquieranne and Mont des Oiseaux.
Sid Feder, Associated Press correspondent, said he and four other American correspondents, caught in the extreme front line of the battle for Marseille, saw the attack unfold step by step.
"The most fearful, awful moment came when the Germans fired 37 millimeter guns virtually point blank into a column of their own soldiers who were taken prisoner by the French and were being marched along the street", Feder said.
"One of the French soldiers, hit in this barrage, was thrown a couple of feet against me and died before he dropped".
Feder said reports from the port area were that the enemy had sunk vessels in the narrow throat of each basin and had mined the entire harbor in an attempt to prevent its use by the allies.

ranged to receive John Foster Dulles, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's foreign policy advisor, again late this afternoon to delve further into the possibilities of bi-partisan cooperation on world security.
After their first meeting yesterday, Dulles told newsmen that in the more than two and a half hours they were together, they made "very considerable progress in exploring the possibilities of bipartisan cooperation." One of the things they talked about, Dulles said, was the question of the policy of secrecy which cloaks all conference discussions. He said he was inclined to think more information could be given out but he declared that Secretary Hull as host is responsible for the conference's public relations policy and "obviously he has the final decision."

CHINESE ARE READY

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—China's finance minister, Dr. H. H. Kung, told the senate today that the Chinese "are prepared to back up a properly constituted world organization with all we have, in the enforcement of peace.
"For the Chinese government and people," he asserted, "I am privileged to say here, that in all matters of international cooperation we whole-heartedly support the policies of the United States, which we are convinced are founded on the same ideals of justice and decency which the Chinese people traditionally cherish."
Dr. Kung said his government is "irrevocably committed" to a democratic program and is well on the way toward full development of a modern democracy. And, he said, the Chinese people are solidly behind the national government and its leader, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

VFW Prohibits Women Members

Chicago, Aug. 24—(AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars national encampment voted today to continue exclusion of women from membership, to demand peacetime compulsory military training and to go on record as favoring the utilization of force, if necessary, in maintaining peace.
Defeating by a vote of 2,848 to 1,946 a proposed amendment to include women—WACs and nurses—the group settled a question which had been tabled for one year. Compromise proposals suggested permitting the women to form their own organization or leaving the decision to current service men.
A heated debate brought forth a prediction that women would take over as commanders of county, district and state posts but admittance of women members was supported by one delegate on the grounds that numerical strength would broaden the organization's influence.
Labeling compulsory military training as "one of the most burning questions of the hour", the encampment ruled that a year of service for youth "will contribute greatly to their physical and mental stature and will enlarge their respect for and love of their country and its ideals".
"If war comes again", the resolution said, "it will strike with incredible suddenness. Under such circumstances, lack of preparation invites disaster".
The organization adopted post-war policy included favoring United States participation in a postwar peace group, with authority to utilize force; the inclusion of veterans at the peace table, and sharing of the nation's surplus goods among countries in need.
The group opposed, however, "impractical and purely visionary charity by which we shall undertake without limit to support and maintain other countries".

kept the masses sufficiently well fed.
While we don't need to regard Rumania's move in the light of the returning prodigal, and kill the fatted calf, yet we can have a tolerant understanding of her position. A substantial portion of the population always has been pro-ally and representatives of that element now have taken over the government. It's encouraging to see in the cabinet that distinguished old peasant leader, Juliu Maniu, who for many years has been a steadying influence among his people.

Leaf River and hauled to the Polo mill, it was learned. Much of this hemp, which is of the Chilean variety, has been used as stock for the bottom of the piles of the 1943 stock and for topping. Exposed to weather conditions, it had decomposed to the point that it is of no commercial value and is being burned to make room for the 1944 crop which is now being hauled to the plant.

Mill Open to Public

The Polo hemp mill is open for public inspection at all times and is turning out four grades of hemp which are being used in the making of rope and thread, it was learned. The plant south of Polo is the first of the hemp plants built for the purpose of creating a source of supply in this country, which had been cut off because of the war, which halted importations from foreign hemp producing countries.
Farmers who produced the crop of hemp, according to the Chicago Tribune article, are embittered over the fact that the hemp is being burned. From employes at the plant it was learned today that this condition prevails, but no estimate could be given of the number of tons to be destroyed in this manner or the value to be placed on the spoiled crop. Thirty per cent of the 1943 crop, the Tribune article stated, is being burned, estimated the amount at 3,100 tons valued at from $30 to $50 per ton.
At the plant offices it was stated today that hemp growing farmers are being paid $50 per ton for grade 1, $40 for grade 2, $35 for grade three and $30 for grade four hemp.

Roosevelt Rejoices at Paris' Liberation

Washington, Aug. 24—(AP)—President Roosevelt, asserting that "we rejoice with the gallant French people at the liberation of Paris," today saluted the French and allied commanders who made possible "this brilliant presage of total victory."
In a statement issued at the White House Roosevelt said:
"The joy that entered the hearts of all civilized men and women at the news of the liberation of Paris can only be measured by the gloom which settled there one June day four years ago when German troops occupied the French capital.
"Through the rising tide of allied successes that patch of gloom remained and has only today been dispelled. For Paris is a precarious symbol of that civilization which it was the aim of Hitler and his armed hordes to destroy.
"We rejoice with the gallant French people at the liberation of their capital and join in the chorus of congratulations to the commanders and fighting men, French and allied, who have made possible this brilliant presage of total victory."

How Different Will be Post-war Homes?

Matt Doorly, our local carpenter, has been showing us architect's drawings of the kind of post-war houses that we're going to live in. Some of them look like squared-off dominoes; some are streamlined like they were going to fly. And they're all filled with fancy things like air-conditioning and what-not.
"Sure change our home life!" Matt says importantly.
"Shucks," says Dan Mason, "it isn't the shape of a house, or the gadgets in it, that make up your home life."
"What is it then?" says Matt.
"It's the little things," says Dan. "Like a well-worn chair before the fire—and a good book—and a friendly glass of beer after a hard day's work. Little things, that are a part of living."
From where I sit, Dan's absolutely right. And I think the men who dream of home from overseas agree—that it's the small, familiar pleasures, that add up to home.

St. Louis Cardinals Win 12th Straight From Chicago Cubs

Grimm's Boys Have Yet to Capture Red Bird Victory

By JACK HAND
Associated rPess Sports Writer

It's no disgrace to lose to the St. Louis Cardinals this year, but the Chicago Cubs threaten to make a life's work out of the habit.

After bowing 11 times in a row when they were lowly cellarites, the Bruins tangled with the Red Birds last night for the first time since they attained their lofty but unsteady perch in the first division.

The result was the same. Twelve straight defeats have been inflicted upon the Chicago team by their St. Louis sparring partners who have shown no signs of stopping.

Charley Grimm's Cubs have 10 more chances to keep their names out of the record books as the only club to go through an entire season without beating all of their rivals at least once.

Coopers Team Up

The Cooper boys teamed up on Chicago last night, Morton coasting to his 18th win 11-1, and Walker driving in three runs with three singles and his 9th home run. It was the fifth straight for Mort but oddly enough his first win over the Cubs.

St. Louis hit a new season high with a winning percentage of .750 by their latest success. Winning three out of every four games in their first 116 starts, Billy Southworths' boys are bearing down on the Cubs' fabulous 116-win record of 1906 when they also set the modern high pace of .763. To beat that mark, the Red Birds must sweep 30 of their 38 remaining contests. That would mean a .789 level from here in.

Shooting att he all-time win record probably will keep the Red Birds pressing right down through their final eastern tour that ends the season.

The entire American league was idle yesterday with all the other Nationals and the schedule makers provide only two senior circuit games today and another off day in the Harridge loop. Both leagues get back to normal Friday.

Sports Shorts

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 21.—(AP)—All of last nights' national semi-pro tournament games were postponed because of rain.

Porter, Ind., Aug. 21.—(AP)—There wasn't a speedster in the entire entry of some 100 turtles which will compete tonight in the fifth annual Chesterton-Porter turtle race at Porter's baseball park.

Two heats are scheduled with the first 10 finishers in a 20-foot race to compete to determine the grand champion, over the same course.

CONFIDENCE NOTE

When the St. Louis Browns were trailing early in a recent game and a new pitcher was warming up, Umpire Bill McGowan remarked to first-baseman George McQuinn: "You're doing all right, even if you lost three out of four here". . . McQuinn snorted: "Lose three out of four? We'll not lose this ball game". . . . and the Browns didn't.

Name Lineups For All-Star Cage Clash

Champaign, Aug. 21.—(AP)—It's a long time since they finished their undergraduate campaigns last March but the North-South All-Star high school cagers appeared in midseason form today as they went through the fourth of daily practices for Saturday's basketball game.

Possibly because they were chosen soon after the regular season ended, the two dozen prep standouts appear to be in better physical shape and shooting form than those of the last two events sponsored by the state coaches association's clinic.

These were the apparent starting lineup choices after yesterday's sessions:

South—Ronald Bontemps, Taylorville, and Jim Marks, Edwardsville, forwards; Walter Kersulis, East St. Louis, center; and Lee Markwell, Casey, and John Orr, Taylorville, guards.

North — Dale Bowers, West Rockford, and Paul Schnackenburg, South Shore of Chicago, forwards; Bill Moe, Kewanee, center; and Sam Sauceda and Jack Burmaster, Elgin, guards.

BOB FALLSTROM

Next Sunday's contest with Howe's All-Stars promises to be a corker. Owning two previous wins over the Knacks, the All-Stars will be shooting for their third straight and 15th success of the year. It should be a great pitching duel as Calvin Howe is the class of this territory and Doc Bloyer also has twirled great ball.

It will be Dixon's outstanding game of the year and all fans are urged to attend.

Second Lieutenant Irvin W. Wolf, recognized as one of the outstanding "greats" in athletics at Sterling Township high school and later a top ranking member of the U. of Iowa track team, has been killed in action on Guam.

Lt. Wolf was an all-around athlete, particularly outstanding on the track. In his senior year he won the state championship in the quarter mile event. He established a record in the Northern Illinois conference in the quarter mile which still stands. He competed in basketball for four years, being a tower of strength during the last two seasons. In football, he was a valuable halfback with plenty of running power.

Lt. Wolf competed against Dixon teams many times, his good sportsmanship endearing him to friend and rival alike.

DeKalb's Orange and Black Barbs definitely are football minded. Despite the stretch of broiling weather, Coach Robert Reihsen has been laying his plans carefully, announcing opening practice for Aug. 28.

Reihsen promises to weld a strong outfit, having six lettermen and 18 experienced boys on hand. However, the squad is unusually young. The complete card:

Sept. 22—DeKalb at West Aurora.
Sept. 29—Spring Valley at DeKalb.
Oct. 6—DeKalb at Dixon.
Oct. 13—DeKalb at Sterling.
Oct. 20—Ottawa at DeKalb.
Oct. 27—DeKalb at Rock Falls.
Nov. 3—Conference play off at DeKalb.
Nov. 11—Sycamore at DeKalb.

All games will be night contests except the Sycamore-DeKalb tussle, which will be staged in the afternoon.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Aug. 21—(AP)—Coach Howie Odell of Yale says he likes all the fooball rules changes adopted by the eastern group except allowing the boys to run with recovered fumbles. . . . Howie thinks that leaves too much to chance and the better team might lose. . . Isn't that what started most of the recent rules trouble? The coaches didn't want to take chances on losing through a fumble or a runback of a kickoff and eliminated a lot of the thrills the cash customers want . . . And, speaking of Yale, the Elis recently lost Emery (Little Swede) Larsen, son of the former Navy coach, through a Marine transfer but they still have Paul Walker, the big sophomore end who could make anybody's team, and a pint-sized prospect in Buzzy Gher, a much-medaled hero of South Pacific action.

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Five faculty members and one advanced student at Michigan State College have been assigned the enjoyable task of deciding whether hatchery-raised brook trout taste as good as wild ones—by eating both kinds for lunch. . . . Bob Gormley of the Philadelphia Americans, one of the best soccer forwards in the country, recently suffered a triple fracture of a leg while sliding in a softball game. Just a softie, eh? . . . .

SERVICE DEPT.

Corp. Eddy Storey, instructor in combat swimming at Camp Lejeune, N. C., is doubly a hero to his Marine pupils. Eddy was cited for bravery on Guadalcanal, and he confesses he passed up a movie contract to play opposite curvaceous Esther Williams. . . . Lieut. (jg) Forrest Evashevski, ex-blocking back, will be an usher at Lieut. Tommy Harmon's wedding. Still running interference.

Top Golfing Pros Begin Open Play at Tam O'Shanter

Chicago, Aug. 21— (AP) —It was Harold (Jug) McSpaden and Byron Nelson — golf's biggest money winners—against the field today as they started playing for keeps in the rich $12,500 All-American tournaments.

The favorites, running one-two among the professionals in money earned this season, were matched against the countrys top shooters in the first 18 holes of the 72-hole open carrying a top reward of $13,162 (maturity value) in war bonds.

Simultaneously, 26 amateurs including the defending champion Dale Morey of Martinsville, Ind., and 28 women began their 72-hole activities to furnish a three-ring circus atmosphere at Tam O'Shanter.

Haul Out Statistics

Sideline seers were enthusiastic about McSpaden, the 1943 winner, and Nelson, third a year ago, in the Open. To embellish their arguments they hauled out statistics showing that "Jug" had won five major tournaments and Nelson had taken three. In 15 tournaments under P. G. A. sponsorship since last Jan. 1, Lord Byron has a three-stroke advantage over "Jug." Their respective totals are 3,687 and 3,690 for averages of 69.56 and 69.62 in 53 rounds.

Qualifying rounds for the non-exempt entries in the Open continued until darkness halted the proceedings last night with a half dozen shooters unable to finish for a chance to join the select field of 105.

A pair of 68's, four under par, fired by Henry E. Williams, Jr., of Royersford, Pa., and Claude Harmon of Grosse Pointewoods, Mich., topped the efforts of the professionals yesterday. A 77 or better was necessary to qualify.

Here are the reasons you should help the Greeks by contributing your old clothes.

The following statements are excerpts from a confidential report received from Greece during the last few weeks. They are worth the consideration of every reader of this newspaper.

- ". . . During last winter we had to bury our loved ones without clothes, sometimes with only a sheet. Almost everyone is in rags, and for the sake of the children we had to save the clothing to protect them from the bitter cold".
- ". . . Cotton goods are almost unattainable . . . wool has also been very scarce since the occupation. All stocks of skin and hides have been requisitioned and have been bought at low prices by special agents for the German army".
- ". . . Investigations of canteens reveal that tens of thousands of children had neither shoes nor coats, and were obliged to walk long distances to secure scanty meals at poorly equipped depots. The survey further showed that out of 770 children checked, 650 were without shoes and 640 were without coats".
- ". . . Reports from the inland of Greece where civilian Greeks are interned, depict conditions which are truly appalling. Their clothes are in shreds, they have no linen, and bandages are taking the place of shoes. These internees have an urgent need for clothing, warm underclothing and shoes. Blankets are equally necessary, for in certain camps there are neither beds nor bed clothing".

Help the Greeks by rummaging through your clothes closets, attics and basements—dig out all of the discarded clothes, shoes, blankets, etc. and take them to Tom's shoe shop, 103 Peoria Ave., where headquarters have been set up for the local Greek War Relief, or call The DeLuxe Cleaners.

County 4-H Achievement Day

The annual Lee county 4-H Achievement Day was held Friday at the Farm Bureau auditorium in Amboy, with all of the 4-H clubs in the county being represented. The program began at 9:00 o'clock in the morning, and each girl modeled her dress at this time. Mrs. Butler of the University of Illinois and the Home Adviser from Whiteside county, were on hand to give these girls any helpful suggestions that they felt would be of benefit to them next year. Each club gave a demonstration at 10:00 o'clocke and the local Wy-Lee club selected Elaine Schlesinger and Evelyn Holzer to give a demonstration on "Altering and Fitting a Pattern." The Wy-Lee club girls with their leaderr, Miss Eleanor Schlesinger, gathered at the park in Amboy for a delicioous picnic dinner. Those girls present for this besides the leader werre: Ellaine Schlesinger, Evelyn Hoelzer, Dorothy Jones, Jacqueline Wright, Vera Ketchum, Ardis Means, Helen Gaines, Marilyn Schlesinger, Dorothy Mae Risetter, Audrey Thompson, Eunice Hoelzer and Corrine Schlesinger. The meeting continued at 1:00 with the dress parade, and this meant that each club as a unit, had their dresses reviewed. There was about 12 4-H clubs in all, represented in this review. A large number of the girls' mothers were on hand, and they werre greatly surprised and pleased as the various clubs disclosed such good workmanship. Due credit should be given to each leader of the individual clubs, on their fine training of these young girls. The Wy-Lee Victory Service club had a booth displaying the work they had done during their first year as an organization. This work goes hand in hand with winning this war as soon as possible, and all of the girls participating in this club should be most satisfied with their work. It was indeed well done. This completed the day's activities and we feel sure that everyone present for this Achievement Day, encourages these 4-H club workers to continue this worthwhile, as will as interesting work.

Bible School Closes

The daily sessions of the Union Vacation Bible school, are now over, with graduating exercises being held at the Baptist church Sunday evening. At this time each department demonstrated the work that they had been taught for the past two weeks, and also the handiwork was displayed at this time. It was an impressive ceremony.

At the close of the worship service Wednesday morning, the children and the entire staff gave an offering for the Christian Service Men's center in Chicago that is sponsored by the Chicago Christian Business Men's committee. When this offering was counted, it was noted that $7.25 was donated.

On Friday the children enjoyed their picnic. A delicious picnic lunch was served and lots of good ice cream and cold drinks, with all of the other good food made this a most enjoyable as well as tasty meal. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and everyone reported a delightful occasion.

Rev. Ernest J. Carder, pastor of the Methodist church, should be commended on his fine work of directing the school through one of the most successful seasons it has ever experienced. Illinois Legion's Convention To Be Stripped of Fun

Meeting Which Opens Thursday is Officially War Conference

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 24—(AP)—More than 5,000 Illinois American Legionnaires tomorrow will open their 26th annual state meeting, which this year has been stripped of frivolity and officially called a war conference.

Postwar and veterans' problems and election of officers will be the major business at the four-day session starting with an executive committee meeting tomorrow night.

Few diversions from serious discussions are planned. Among listed features are a mass induction of 500 honorably discharged veterans of World War II into the Legion, ritual team contests, a special memorial service at Lincoln's Tomb, and an oration by Melvin Cornfield, winner of the Legion oratorial contest conducted among Illinois high school students.

Frolicking of past conventions has received an official frown, and the colorful parade of uniformed Legionnaires, bands and floats has been cancelled for the first time.

Another official action has been a ban on street peddling and panhandling during the conference.

60 Resolutions Ready

About 60 resolutions have been drafted for consideration. One deals with a controversial proposal to admit present war veterans as Legion members while still in service. Congressional action would be necessary to change the organization's charter limiting membership to honorably discharged soldiers.

Floor discussions are expected to include suggestions that World War II servicemen form their own Legion posts, using facilities of existing posts.

A strong endorsement of John Stelle of McLeansboro, former Illinois governor, for National Commander will be submitted to delegates.

Arthur Canty of Chicago, now senior vice commander of the Illinois department, is slated to succeed Dr. Leonard W. Esper of Springfield as state commander at election of officers Monday.

Headlining the speaking program will be Governor Dwight H. Green, U. S. Senators Scott W. Lucas and C. Wayland Brooks, Col. Raymond J. Kelly of the Army Service Force, and Martin V. Coffey, national Legion vice commander.

The affiliated organizations of Forty and Eight, Auxiliary, and Eight and Forty will meet in conjunction with the Legion.

New Rumor of Finnish Peace Bid Reported

Stockholm, Aug. 24—(AP)—The Finnish minister to Sweden, G. A. Gripenberg, suddenly departed by air today for Helsinki in a journey obviously connected with efforts to get Finland out of the war.

It was Gripenberg's second trip to Helsinki in two weeks.

Opinion here was that Romania's exit from the war might hasten action by Baron Mannerheim, president and marshal of Finland.

Finnish soudces said the old leader had been "clearing the decks" for an armistice.

Information from Finland said the Germans were spreading propaganda that they were giving up France in order to launch a tremendous offensive against Russia. Finn. reactionaries were reported cooperating with the argument that "we had better wait because once the Germans have launched their counterattack, we will be in a better position to negotiate with the Russians."

FFI Captures 1,000 Germans in Paris Fight

London, Aug. 24—(AP)—The French announced today the capture of over 1,000 Germans in the first day of the four-day battle which liberated Paris, and declared that nazi losses were heavy in bitter fighting street by street.

At least a dozen heavy tanks with which the German garrison charged massed patriots in the streets weer destroyed in the first day of fighting and ten others were knocked out in the next two days. Many civilians were killed by the nazis, the French Forces of the Interior commander, Lt. Gen. Joseph Pierre Koenig, announced in a communique.

Koenig said the German commandant in the French capital tried to stall the fate of his troops by asking for an armistice.

It was understood from other sources that he sought thus to gain temporary safe conduct for the withdrawal through Paris of German troops which still were in action against American forces in an arc west of the city.

French Refused

The French said they refused and fought it out and won.

There still was no official word of the total number of Germans captured, but on the basis of the thousand taken on the first day—before the German stand began to break—the bag might have been considerable.

"Following orders for a general uprising on Aug. 19, strikes became general and the Germans paraded the streets with tanks and into crowds, killing many civilians", Koenig's communique said.

"Very soon guerilla fighting was going on over the city.

"In the first day's fighting, a dozen heavy tanks were destroyed and more than 1,000 prisoners were taken as well as a large number of weapons including anti-tank guns.

"During the next night and day, the occupation of public buildings proceeded rapidly and during Sunday night, the enemy withdrew from certain positions.

"The German commander started negotiations for an amistice and offered to recognize the FFI as combatants".

Lee County Quota for War Relief is Set

Lee county has again been called upon to lend its support to the National War Relief fund and at a meeting of the executive committee held last evening, it was decided to conduct the campaign from Oct. 15 to 30, when residents will be solicited to make donations totaling $29,500. Mrs. Jean Alexian of Rock Island, a member of the state executive committee, met with the county group last evening and explained the program in detail, following a dinner at the Nachusa hotel.

The quota is under that assigned to Lee county last year which fell short of being met, and the same executive committee members will conduct the campaign. Sterling Schrock, John Torrens, L. G. Cannon, A. V. Lund and William Slothower compose the committee together with the supervisors of the several townships, many of whom were present at the meeting last evening. John L. Davies has been named treasurer of the county organization, while A. V. Lund will serve as publicity chairman.

Dixon Quota $14,786

In Dixon township, L. G. Cannon is in charge of the drive and the quota assigned to this section amounts to $14,786. Sixty-one per cent of the dollar subscribed to this worthy and deserving fund is allotted to the fighting forces including the U. S. O. organization, 38 per cent is credited to the allied countries relief and but one per cent is used in the administration of the nation wide campaign.

A new program is being considered by the Lee county organization and announcements will appear later concerning organizational gatherings in the various sections of the county. Mrs. Alexian will also appear before the Lee county board of supervisors at its regular September meeting to further explain the provisions of the program.

City Letter Carrier, in Service 35 Years, is Given Rural Route

Earl Senneff, 516 Brinton avenue, who for 35 years was letter carrier in the east end of Dixon, performing his duties courteously and faithfully through all kinds of weather, has been allowed to transfer to rural route 3. The change has been made to benefit his health, as he recently had been ill, and on the new route he will be relieved of the necessity of trudging many miles daily as the rural route permits him to ride.

The postal patrons on Mr. Senneff's city route will miss his cheery service and will unite in the hope that the change will prove of great benefit to him.

Leaves from an AP War Correspondent's Notebook

BY HAL BOYLE

Chartres, France, Aug. 16 — (Delayed) — (AP) — These episodes of the French shearing the hair off their women is a manifestation of mob spirit which is spectacularly supported by many elements of the French nation, but there are also many people who deplore the incidents

I watched today as 30 unhappy women submitted to head shavings because they were afraid of the jeering, yelling mob behind them. Afterward they were led in shame through the streets.

Most of them were lumpy, ugly creatures who certainly conferred on great distinction on the nazis by consorting with enemy occupation troops

Yet the French have reasons for hating these women.

"We felt that France was truly ended when our women — even these women—took up with the Germans", said one Frenchman.

A French major with four rows of ribbons on his chest watched the women being shaved without a trace of sympathy in his gray eyes

"We hate them because Frenchmen are dead because of these women", he said.

He and other Frenchmen believe that the gossip of these women to German soldier friends led to the capture and death of many resistance leaders.

Yet there is a large portion of the population who believe that this mob justice is not a true solution. They feel that the guilty should be punished by lawful trial rather than haphazard shearing of suspected women.

Standing near these 30 miserable women who had just been shorn in Chartres was Jacqueline Fretlat, 21, who had just been freed after spending a month in a German prison for befriending an allied airman. She had more reason to despise these women than did many of the others, but she deplored the shearing as punishment because it was emotional rather than reasoned.

LOVE ON A BUS

Seattle—Bus passengers were surprised when the driver hailed a woman operator of another bus, went over and kissed her resoundingly.

While the customers tittered, the driver returned to his wheel and explained:

"About the only time I see my wife now is when our buses meet on this trip. I've gone to work before she's up. She's still on the job when I go to bed".

MAKES THE GRADE

Syracuse, N. Y.—James Windhausen sought to enlist in the Navy 34 times. Each time he was turned down. The 35th time he appeared at the recruiting station he was accepted.

300,000 Manhours Lost Monthly in Dixon Labor Area

Approximately 300,000 manhours are lost in the Dixon-Amboy-Sterling area war and essential activities each month through absenteeism and turnover, while the city is classified as a Group 1 or critical shortage area, and essential employers are vainly seeking workers, John C. Wisley, war manpower commission director for Area No. 3, said today.

Absenteeism lost the city's essential industries 200,000 manhours last month, and turnover took approximately 100,000 manhours, Wisley said. These totals, he explained, are the toll taken by the area's 5.5 per cent absenteeism and 5.5 per cent turnover rate among the area's workers in war and essential activity.

"A flotilla of five heavy four-engine bombers, 10 two-engine bombers and 25 pursuit planes could have been built in the manhours lost in the area through absenteeism and turnover in the last month", Wisley pointed out.

Approximately 1,000 war-essential workers are absent from their jobs every day, losing 8,000 manhours daily, he said. Workers who quit average almost 1,000 each month and lose, on the average, two weeks in changing jobs and learning new techniques.

Share Responsibility

Employers, as well as workers, have a responsibility for cutting turnover and absenteeism as low as possible, Wisley stressed. In addition, the community is responsible for correcting conditions that may be causing absenteeism and turnover. These include community facilities, such as inadequate shopping, banking and rationing arrangements, etc., poor transportation and lack of child care for working mothers.

Other possible causes of absenteeism and turnover, Wisley said, are poor placement of workers in a plant, inadequate training, bad working conditions, poor supervision, home responsibilities, and the attitude of workers toward their jobs.

"Employers should determine whether these conditions exist in their plants", Wisley said, "and take action to correct such conditions wherever they are found."

Wisley pointed out that the first step in correcting excessive absenteeism and turnover is for employers to determine where these problems are most serious and which of the possible causes are responsible.

"An employer is usually able to tell the absentee and turnover rate for his plant as a whole", Wisley said, "but these over-all, average figures don't help much in correcting the problem. To get at the root of these conditions, we must know where the high rates are—which department or shift is affected most, whether the absentees or quits are men or women—and what the reasons are. When the turnover rate is high employers should interview each employee who leaves his company, to find out why the worker is quitting. Armed with these specific facts, the employer can then attack the conditions that are causing absenteeism and turnover".
